Hello,

This week we're delighted to be welcoming Gillie Kleiman to the stage along with Greg Wohead to perform their double-bill Familiar. This will be followed by FRESH North East on Thursday 19 March featuring performances from an eclectic mix of artists. Tickets are still available for our first ever Artist SOUP the following week which you can find out more about below.

Residencies without Borders 1 week to go!

Dance City is seeking proposals from dance artists/companies based outside of the UK to undertake two, one week residencies as part of our new Residencies without Borders programme. The residencies we are looking to support can be thematically diverse and the work you choose to apply with can be live performance, dance film or movement research.

Meet The Artist - Gillie Kleiman

Twin Peaks, animatronic dogs and all things pink... Ahead of this week's performance of Familiar, we spoke to one half of the critically-acclaimed duo behind the show and self-proclaimed 'Dance City kid', Gillie Kleiman to find out more about her career so far and what we can expect when it arrives here on Thursday 12 March...
